

XM radio's services are invaluable to me. How is it the government always tries to meddle with the good things of life? The radio broadcasters cannot provide the same services as XM; that is the heart of their concern. Please leave XM as it is.

Thanks.